

June 20 John Fitzpatrick – “No Fail Here -- Lincoln’s Leadership & the Real Back Story to the

Gettysburg Address

“There is No Fail Here” is the real back-story to Lincoln’s leadership challenges and the Gettysburg Address. Why did this conflicted and careworn President come to Gettysburg on November 18-19, 1863? He was not the keynote speaker and was asked to make only a few appropriate remarks.

About our Speaker:

During the summer months, John is a Licensed Battlefield Guide Emeritus at Gettysburg after guiding over 20 years. He was a Senior Corporate Counsel in the Chevron Corporation Law Department for 32 years and lives in California.

Prior to entering Law School, John served on Active Duty as a U.S. Marine Corps Officer – Tank Platoon Commander then Pilot flying 140 combat missions in Vietnam.
